DAY - 2 :

MANALI TO SARCHU

- Today after the breakfast we have to visit to sarchu. which is a key stretch of the Manali-Leh Highway. This journey takes you through stunning landscapes, high-altitude passes, and remote areas, and requires careful planning.
- We will cross the ATAL TUNNEL and you'll travel down towards Tandi, where the Chandra River meets the Bhaga River. After Tandi, you'll head toward Jispa, a small village with a stunning view of the Dhauladhar Range. Continue your journey toward Keylong, After Keylong, you'll climb steadily toward Baralacha La, one of the highest passes on the route.
- After Baralacha La, the road begins to descend toward Sarchu (4,290 meters), located on the border between Himachal Pradesh and Jammu & Kashmir (Ladakh). Sarchu is a popular overnight stop for travelers heading to Leh. The landscape here is stark and desolate, surrounded by barren hills and high-altitude plains.
